DISTORTIONS

with Ian Bostridge, tenor // Marina Galic, actress

Works by Robert Schumann after poetry by Heinrich Heine with fragments of scenes from Woyzeck by Georg Büchner for singer, actress and chamber ensemble

Ian Bostridge and Marina Galic as the main characters are joined by the ensemble Compagnia di Punto, which performs on instruments from the early 19th century - the period in which both Schumann and Büchner were active. Through exaggeration and alienation, this unusual, dramatic recital repeatedly draws Schumann's beautiful songs into the present and poses the question if we, as a society, deal with psychological instability appropriately.

12 instrumentalists, tenor, actress

RIDDLE ROSETTI

After the second CD "Trovatello" the idea for this chamber music pastiche was born. Reports of Rosetti's contemporaries, letter quotes and parts from the novella "Concert spirituel" by Hans Joachim Schädlich point out the mystery of Rosetti. With sounds and with words, the ensemble Compagnia di Punto tells about this two interwoven destinies, which have created a music with a very own color.
